Her Seven Ages of Woman is a series of portraits, as rapid as graphic; each union; some convulsingly comic, while others do touch the sout's 'k-y minor,' with the wand of pathos itself. We wish we had space to-tay to do somewhat of justice to the remarkat I: and mo-t interestmiraculous power of transforming herself; to the faithfulness of her partraits of particular types; to moods,' which makes her the most engaging Get abourd early, woman in the world. DARING ROBBERY .- We sincerely regret to note the fact that on Tuesday night last our young townsman, W. S. ATTEWAY, was robbed of $2,543 He had left on the Night Train for Nashville, with his money in his pantaloons pocket, and after leaving Whiteside Station, he fell asleep, and when he awoke at Wartrace, be discovered that he had been robbed. The scoundrels have not yet and we tear never will be detected. Mr. A. had not been long in business on his own account but by industry and economy had added to his little capital, and was when robbed, on his way to Nashville to pay up his debts and purchase more goods. - Chattanooga Gaz. Homicips - A man named Wm. Smith, a manager at Cumberland Iron Works, was killed on Friday last by Mr. George Aukins, who was in the employ of the same Company. There was no witness except a negro, and Adkins himself, is consequently the only one who can furnish any account of the affair. The deceased was bad v beaten with a stick and also shot. Wm Hardin, (grand son of Hon Ben Hardin,) and and both fell desperately wounded, when their friends conveyed them to hotels to care for their ghastly and dangerous wounds. The parties have been at comity for a long time, and have had a previous fight, -Lon Cour. 14th, THE TORACCO CROP .- A gentleman who is experienced in the culture of the plant, and who has just traveled through the counties of Union, Henderson, Hopkins, Davis, Hancock, and Breckinridge, on the opposite side of the river, for the purpose of learning the prospects of the crops, contradicts the flattering representations we have had of the growth of the tobacco plant. He tells us that the plants are coming up in abundance, but that they are but just making their appearance; that the plant cannot attain the size in the bed for transplanting in less than sixty days. and that Tobacco transplanted after the 1st of July cannot produce any thing better than good lags. Without an extraordinarily favorable season, our friend thinks the crop of Topacco must be very inlerior and short in all the counties he has visited. -Evansville (Ia.) Journal, May 12th.

Corn is selling at St. Joseph, M stouri, at $1 25 per bushal.

THE WHEAT CROP--The New Albany (Ia.) Lelger is informed by a gentleman who is himself a practical farmer and a careful and accurate observer of the crops from year to year, that he has recently pas ed over considerable portions of Floyd, Harrison, and Washington counties, Indiana, and everywhere the growing wheat was in most excellent condition, giving promise of an abundant crop. It is generally amply tack on the ground and of good color. No worm or insect has as yet attacked the plants, and unless very unfavorable weather should occur between this and harvest, the yield will be abundant.

Crooker's Millinery Establishment. We doubt whether the fai dames and belles of Nashville have ever ex erien ed so much difficulty he the selection of a bonnet, as this season, at this establishment. The cause is not to be found in the increased fastidiousness or captiousness of their tastes, nor in the paucity of the stock or inelegance of the styles. No; we must look for it in some other quarter. Their fencies, to tell the truth, have been bewildered by the great variety and beauty of the assortment to choose from. They experience such sensations while beholding it, as one feels in a rich conservatory surrounded by the rarraterorics, and aved in their delicious perfumes. They have of the reason. Good Bowling Alleys and a fine Ball Room, such emotious as led the poet to wish that the lips of all womankind, especially the beauties, were condensed into one pretty pouting pair that he might, in kissing them, kiss the whole race. Where there is so much elegance, so great a variety, a choice must be difficult. The thing's natural; and the dear creatures are not to theme. But not of bonnets alone does Crooker's congress consist. Nearly all descriptions of millinery goods are represented there-from the lightest and most etherial to the beavier fabrics which art produces to adorn the oveliest of nature's handiworks.

E. & J. HOLMES' IMPROVED SEAMLESS WHALEBONE SKIRTS.

W E take pleasure in again introducing our Improved Scamless Skirt, as being the most acceptable and reliable article in market; we are aware that many new styles called improvements are before the public, such as India Rubber, Gutta Percha, Ratian, &c., all of which we have if called for-but cannot recommend them, as we have ex-perimented with and tested them all-(most of them two years since,) submitting them to the judgment of compe-tent ladies to decide upon their merits, and have found them, from actual use, to be in all important respects, de-cidedly inferior to our properly prepared Whatebone, which has been in use the past two years, and for which has been expressed from all parts of the country entire satisfaction; and we have the more positive evidence from our own large retail trade, amounting to many dozens per day. Therefore we confidently recommend our Skirts to be the least objectionable of anything in use; possessing m ny a wantages found in no other Skirt, the most inportant of which is series of elastic three at the bottom made from the only material that can be used, that will recover its place when pressed out of shape, will not roll no can', is not affected by heat or cold and can be washed without injury. These Cords at the bottom, instead of bone, which are exceedingly awkward and inconvenient, with our own prepared bones above and a fabric manufacexpressly for our produce a Skirt, and the only Skirt equally adapted to the parior, the street, and the crowd, giving a proper, graceful and elegant form to a Lady's dress; light, pliable, easily adjusted and in every respect a complete article the pub-ile are cautioned against all imitations or other goods called Scamless Skirts. Every genuine article is stopped, E. & J. Homes' Improved Scamless Whalebone Skirt, and are for sale at 99 Market street, Philadelphis, and in the principal lobbing Houses in New York and Boston.
